Dear Sailor Families,

There is always something very special about this time of year. There is a spirit of joy and sharing that prevails during the holiday season. One of the best parts about this time of the year is the time we get to spend with our families. Remember a few of these things as you embark on the new year:

- Remember people, not things, matter most.
- Respect our children's individual differences and appreciate each child's unique capabilities.
- When we think good thoughts about our children, tell them.
- Don't stress over the little things...make sure you are doing things that matter the most.
- Laugh a lot and Play even more. The kids love to see you be like them!

Try to live this season through the eyes of your child. It's a magical time!

Have a Safe and Happy Holidays!

Tony Ebeling
Principal

The staff at Bay Harbor would like to wish all of our wonderful families a very happy and safe holiday season.

See you again in 2014!

Up on the Rooftop! And it wasn't Santa....

Check out the pictures above of a "Pirate" that was recently seen on the roof at Bay Harbor during recess! (It was actually Mr. Ebeling in disguise. He agreed to wear this costume up on the roof after the goal of having 50 bags of food brought in to donate to the Giving Tree was met)!
