

OPERA FOR THE YOUNG'S
The Barber of Seville

Barber of Seville:

Figaro! Figaro! Figaro! A classic character comes to life as a motorcycle-riding rascal in Opera for the Young's adaptation of Rossini's The Barber of Seville. Set in the fabulous 1950's, this comic opera will leave audiences laughing, cheering and inspired. It's a riotous romp featuring a lovesick count, the blushing object of his affection, a crusty old doctor, and, of course, Figaro. Issues of class consciousness dissolve in the face of true love and hijinks. In this one-of-a-kind interactive event, your students perform alongside professional cast members. The Barber of Seville will awe and inspire audiences for years to come.

The mission of Opera for the Young:

1. Engage and educate children about opera with professional, affordable, school-based performances,
2. Involve students in all aspects – from design to performance;
3. Provide professional opportunities for emerging artists;
4. Foster the creation of new operatic works expressly intended for young audiences;
5. Broaden access to opera for the entire community.
