

BAY HARBOR ELEMENTARY STUDENTS SHARE THEIR ARTWORK WITH THE WORLD!

Anyone can view the school gallery online at:

www.artsonia.com/schools/BayHarbor1. Visitors can browse the artwork in the school gallery by grade level, or by specific exhibits. The students full name is never shared online, but each student received a username that was emailed to you if you wish to use that to look up their artwork, as well. Bay Harbor Elementary students join thousands of students from over 130 countries whose artwork is showcased on Artsonia. "This program is a wonderful way to get parents and family members more involved in Art Education," said Jessica Van Epps.

All of Artsonia's artwork (20 million and counting!) are viewable online, and any teacher or parent can create an online art gallery for their child or school. Artsonia provides several online features such as fan clubs and personal guestbooks, as a way for families to encourage the creativity and imaginations of their young artists. In addition, family members can purchase keepsakes imprinted with the child's artwork, with Artsonia donating 20 percent of their annual product revenue back to school art programs.
