Fall Fest update – Lesli Frank

Everything is booked, wagon rides, Jakes Jumpers, photo booth, next meeting is Thursday, October 6th at the school at 6:45pm, classroom basket assignments going out in take home envelopes this week, raffle – Bob Watts has donated an opportunity for a child to co-host his Packer show, details are going to Lesli to determine how to raffle or auction the donation, volunteer sign up will go out and starts in about a week, still need people to help with baskets and to help with signs, also we need people to shadow outing current PTO members and help with solicitations

Playground update – David Gillett

They started work on the playground and are hoping to have it playable next week already

Classroom Parties update – Kimberly Kolz

Kim sent out the emails to all parents signed up to help with classroom parties, we need to change up how we are going to handle this before the next classroom party. Fall classroom lists are done.

Finance update – Amy Eder

Funds were transferred out of the Go Fund Me account in the amount of $457.51, checking balance is $40,833.63. Total received $2,750 from pink envelopes. That amount is down $1,100 from last year this time. September expenses - $91.74 paid out in hospitality and $400.00 to the annual drinking water fund. David closed Go Fund Me for new donations.

Box Tops update – Dawn Brandt

Classroom contest deadline is October 14 and the winning classroom gets a classroom basket, January/February will be another contest which will be a movie contest, and May will be another and will be an Ice Cream contest, it was noted to caution against expired Box Tops.

Principal update – On behalf of Tony Ebeling, Andy Brandt

Reminder to check out the new newsletter, the playground is being build and finishing up next week, Friday is a Professional Development Day and Parent/Teacher Conferences email will go out on October 8th.

Book Fair update – Bob Watts

Jeri is helping Bob out to help organize and create sign-up for volunteers.

Secretary update – Heather Ebeling

Need to focus on family donations and pushing to get those donations, Heather will create a new form to go into take-home envelopes

Motion to Adjourn by David Gillette. Motion was seconded by Tricia MacDondald.
