Announcing the National Railroad Museum's Summer Railroad Camp. During this five-day program, students will:

- Build an HO-scale model railroad
- Cook food from original dining car recipes
- Be challenged by railroad-themed activities
- Have a trainload of fun at the Museum

Students will work with Museum staff members and trained volunteers to learn about trains and railroading. Summer Railroad Camp will be an exciting week of hands-on activities.

- Who may enroll: Girls or boys ages 9-12
- Fee: $100 per person
- Camp capacity 24 students

Advance registration is required. Enrollment fee to be remitted by June, 2014

Cancellation and Refunds: Museum may cancel the program if less than six students are enrolled on June 7, 2014. Should the Museum need to cancel the program all enrollment fees will be refunded. If a student withdraws, the following refunds will be made: Before 7 of June: 100%; Before June 21: 50%; After June 21: No refunds will be given
