Pumpkin Town! or Nothing is Better and Worse Than Pumpkins

illustrated by Pablo Bernasconi
Houghton Mifflin, 2006
ISBN 9780618605699 Hardcover
ISBN 9780547181936 Paperback

One pumpkin makes a tasty pie. Two pumpkins can be carved into grinning jack-o'-lanterns, and a couple hundred more make for a decent pumpkin patch. Gather one thousand pumpkins and you'll have a grand fall festival. But what happens when a town has an accidental abundance of pumpkins? What do José and his brothers do with a mountain of pumpkins? An EXPLOSION of pumpkins? Step into Pumpkin Town and see!

It All Began with a Bean

illustrated by Tracy Hill
Tanglewood Press, 2004
ISBN 9780974930305

What happens when, one day, a dropped bean is devoured by ten flies, and hundreds of dogs eat cheese fallen from a truck, and thousands of runners begin gulping air, and all the people at home that morning have eggs for breakfast, and then they all toot at once? This hilarious book answers that intriguing question, as readers learn of the aftereffects of the world's biggest toot on the poor town where it happens, from poodles' curls going limp to elephants plugging their trunks with bananas. This unique picture book, with lighthearted illustrations, will entertain children and parents alike.

Wolf Camp

illustrated by Bonnie Leick
Tanglewood Press, 2009
ISBN 9781933718217

Maddie's mother agrees to send her daughter to a new camp - Wolf Camp. But when Maddie returns, she seems, well, changed. She snaps at flies, howls at fire trucks, and chases squirrels - on all fours. She quits eating candy and starts eating meat - only meat. And the dog is now afraid of her when she lifts her lip and shows her teeth. What child hasn't fantasized about being an animal? And what parent hasn't exclaimed over the transformation in their child when picking him or her up from camp? This book intertwines these two themes in a hilarious story of a very different kind of camping experience.
